JUDGE DENOUNCES ACTIONS OF MOB IN KNOXVILLE RIOT

Men Who Threatened Life of Sheriff Should Be in Pen Declares Justice in Charge to Grand Jury.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 5. (Sp.)—The crimes committed by the mob are most damnable. They strike at the very root of civilization and decent society. Judge T. A. R. Nelson emphatically declared in his charge to the grand jury of the criminal court here. "So long as such acts are permitted to be perpetrated, there can be no society. You men owe it to yourselves and to your families to see that no guilty man escapes, and that no innocent man is punished."

Judge Nelson asserted that the men who threatened the life of Sheriff W. T. Cate, who he said was only doing what he had sworn he would do, are "criminals of the lowest type, and should be in the penitentiary instead of running at large on the streets of this or any other city."

Judge Nelson declared that neither Mays, the alleged murderer, nor mobsters could probably get a fair and impartial trial in this county, where "so much prejudice exists," and may have to be transferred elsewhere for trial. "We won't defend Mays."

It is reported on the streets that one, and possibly more, of the prominent attorneys of this city have declined to defend Mays when he is brought to trial. It has been stated that he will probably not be able to secure an attorney, and that the court may have to appoint some one to defend him.

Attorney-General Mynatt said that if this is done the man who is selected will receive no compensation, his services being rendered as a courtesy to the court.

Sheriff Cate stated that Gov. A. H. Roberts has authorized him to offer a reward of $250 for the capture of Worth White, who is under death sentence for the alleged killing of Sam Greer, of Elmore county, and $200 each for Rhude Fellows, who is alleged to have killed Peter Nichols, and for Chas. Paul, who is alleged to have killed a Greek at LaFollette, and both of whom are under life imprisonment sentences.

Judge Hall and Sheriff Cate spoke in praise of the conduct of George Galyon, year and L. L. Galyon, both federal prisoners.

"Instead of these men seeking to escape, as some of the prisoners did, they helped the officers in the effort to maintain order, and to prevent damage to the jail," Mr. Hall said. "They did this at a great personal risk to themselves, as the mob at times made ugly threats against the officers."

Galyon, whose home is in Lenoir City, is serving a term of 11 months and 25 days, following his conviction on a charge of violating the selective service act. He has been incarcerated about eight months. He stated that he had no desire to make his escape until his term is served.

G. M. & A. RAILROAD TAPS RICH TERRITORY

NEW ALBANY, Miss., Sept. 5. (Sp.)—The opening of passenger and freight traffic today over the lines of the Gulf, Mobile & Northern railroad from Middleton, Tenn., to Jackson, Tenn., is an occasion of gratification to the business men and enterprises of New Albany, and other sections through which this railroad runs, in Mississippi. A hope long cherished by the shippers and other business men of this community has been realized today. People here have gladly given every encouragement to the plan to extend this road to Jackson, and other points further north, so that this road would be in position to offer advantageous competition in comparison with other carriers.

The history of this railroad is comparatively short, but its achievements have been marked. It was constructed under the private ownership of the late Col. Falkner, of Ripley, Miss., and ran from Middleton, Tenn., to New Albany, as a narrow gauge road, whence its popular local appellation "Doodle Bug." Later it was extended to Mobile, Ala., and became a standard gauge road. Its record during the last few years has been one of the best in the state, so far as regards accidents, and it enjoys the distinction of being one of the best in maintaining the schedule of its trains. Its roadbed and rolling stock has undergone a most noticeable and favorable change and improvement. The people of this section feel that they ought to and do heartily congratulate the management of the road for its expansion and extension to Jackson, since such a direct and material benefit accrues to the people by reason of the junction it affords with other carriers at that point, and the additional outlet and inlet it affords for the commerce of this section.

KNOXVILLE DISCUSSES HYDROELECTRIC POWER

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 5. (Sp.)—Plans to be discussed here today by the board of commerce and Tennessee River Improvement association, officials to provide for the raising of $25,000 for the promotion of hydroelectric power development on the Tennessee river between Knoxville and Chattanooga. Knoxville and Chattanooga will each be asked to raise $10,000, the remainder to be supplied by Sweetwater, Loudon, Athens, Dayton, Rockwood and other small towns between Chattanooga and Knoxville. Congress is to be asked for a $20,000,000 appropriation to construct dams, variously estimated at six to eleven. Engineers say electric power can be produced and distributed in Knoxville at cost of three-fourths of 1 per cent per kilowatt hour, the present rate here being 11 cents minus 10 per cent for prompt payment. W. D. Waldo, consulting engineer, and C. H. Huston, president of the River Improvement association, are here in the interest of the project.

EX-SOLDIER SLAYER IS TAKEN FROM JAIL

BERLIN, Sept. 5.—(By The Associated Press.)—The ex-soldier Rung, who was sentenced in May to two years imprisonment for connection with the murders of Dr. Karl Liebknecht and Rosa Luxemburg, is reported by Die Freiheit to have been taken from jail by troops. The newspaper says that his whereabouts is unknown.

BRITISH OUTLOOK MUCH BRIGHTER

Industrial Unrest Gradually Diminishing and Only Minor Trouble Exists Now.

LONDON, Sept. 5.—The industrial situation in Great Britain at the present moment appears far less grave than a few months ago, when there was a threat of a complete upheaval of labor. Since the settlement of the Yorkshire strike there has been no trouble of great magnitude although small strikes in various industries are still frequent and tramway workers are threatening a walkout if the wage increase is not granted.

Generally, however, unrest throughout the country has lessened since ministerial revelations of the nation's grave financial position which seems to have had a moderating influence. Influential labor leaders have done their utmost to impress workers with the imperative need of speeding up the industrial output and moreover the government has promised early legislation providing for a 48-hour week and a minimum wage for all industries.

Much will now depend on whether the coming winter brings a serious advance in the cost of living. Such an upward movement is already foreshadowed in increased prices of staple foods such as bread, meat, milk and tea and if prices continue to rise new demands on the part of labor with a renewal of the strike movement will undoubtedly develop.
